Killing England: The Brutal Struggle for American

Independence by Bill O'Reilly
This book reminds one and all how the course of history can be changed through the courage and determination of those intent on doing the impossible.

Unbelievable: My Front-Row Seat to the Craziest Campaign in American History by Katy Tur

Unbelievable is a darkly comic, fascinatingly bizarre and often scary story of how America sent a former reality show host to the White House. It's also the story of what it was like for Tur to be there as it happened, inside a no-rules world where reporters were spat on, demeaned and discredited.

Cuz: The Life and Times of Michael A.

by Danielle Allen
In this Ellisonian story of a young African-American man's coming-of-age in late 20th-century America, and of the family who will always love Michael, we learn how we lost a generation.

What Happened

by Hillary Rodham Clinton
For the first time, Clinton reveals what she was thinking and feeling during one of the most controversial and unpredictable presidential elections. She takes you inside the intense personal experience of becoming the first woman nominated by a major party in an election marked by rage, sexism, exhilarating highs and infuriating lows, stranger-than-fiction twists, Russian interference and an opponent who broke all the rules. This is her most personal memoir yet.
