

Directions: Listen to each pair of sentences as your teacher reads them. Write First on the blank before the sentence that happened first in the story, and write Then on the blank before the sentence that happens second in the story.

1. Then, the merchant and his family live in a simple cottage.

First, the merchant and his family live in a lavish home.

2. First, the merchant loses two ships full of cargo.

Then, the merchant finds out that one ship was found.

3. First, the merchant rides his horse in a snowstorm.

Then, the merchant finds a castle.

4. Then, the merchant finds a rose garden.

First, the merchant eats a meal.

5. Then, the beast appears.

First, the merchant picks a rose for Beauty.

6. First, the beast tells the merchant his punishment.

Then, the beast lets the merchant go back to his daughters.